Gros Ventre River Ranch

Basic Information:

We are an ALL INCLUSIVE ranch for families, couples, and singles. We provide beginning to advanced horseback riding on the trail for adults and children 7 years and older, fishing, hiking, mountain bike riding, fine dining, breathtaking views and most of all, relaxation at its best. Some activities include fly fishing on our stocked ponds or in the Gros Ventre River, a nature hike on an unlimited number of wilderness trails, singing around the campfire roasting marshmallows, enjoying a glass of wine while sitting on our deck overlooking the Gros Ventre River and Grand Teton Mountain Range, or pictures taken of you on a horse atop a mountain. Also, during our Peak Season, you might enjoy fly casting instruction on our ponds, a slideshow shown by a local Park Ranger of the Teton National Park in our main lodge, or a quiet hike around the area with a certified Naturalist. There are also plenty of hammocks around the ranch or choose a sitting rock next to the river to view the busy beavers in their den. Again, all of this is included in our rates.

Red Reflet Ranch

Basic Information:

Located in Ten Sleep, a beautiful, quiet area of Wyoming, the Red Reflet (re-flay) is both a working ranch and luxurious Guest Ranch/Resort, that utilizes over 25,000 acres of land which range from 4,200' to 8,300' in elevation, and encompassing many spectacular landscapes. These landscapes transition from cacti desert to Aspen forests to deep limestone canyons fringed with giant Ponderosa Pines, to rolling sage covered hills, to multicolored rock layered canyons in the foothills of the Big Horn Mountains. But minutes away are the fascinating Castle Gardens and the lakes, streams, and trails of the 1,115,000 acre Big Horn National Forest, and nearly 200,000 acres of the Cloud Peak Wilderness with peaks to 13,175'. There is so much to explore and so many surprises, we are sure you will be delighted and enthralled.

Transportation: Shuttle service free of charge to and from the Worland Airport

Accommodations: Guest accommodations have great privacy, wonderful views, and are very luxurious. All Chalets offer a private hot tub, steam shower, fireplace, washer & dryer, complete kitchen, satellite Direct-TV, wireless Internet access, direct phone line and are stocked with snacks, beverages, and breakfast foods as you require. In accommodations, and every other aspect, the Red Reflet Guest Ranch is unlike any other guest ranch and we seek to keep it simply in a league of its own.

Dining: Mealtime is always memorable on the Red Reflet Ranch, as almost everything on the table has been grown or raised on the Ranch to be the absolute best, then prepared by our resident executive Chef, and intended to be healthful and fabulous dining. A full bar is included to compliment pre-dinner hors-d'oeuvres. Choose from 20+ different beers and 100+ wines from all over the world, also included in your one rate vacation. Most lunches will include staff from different units of the operation, some days include the full staff for lunch, so you will have an opportunity to meet and visit with the folks who make the ranch work and better understand what do on at a real, Wyoming working ranch. Dinners are usually with the owners, who live on site, and want to be sure your experience on the Red Reflet Ranch is a memorable experience and everything you could hope or expect.

Accommodations: We have ten guest cabins that have been renovated in the past six years to deluxe accommodations. Six of the cabins have two bedrooms. The atmosphere at the Spotted Horse Ranch is relaxed and casual. Our individual cabins are of log construction with the modern conveniences of home. Spacious comfortable rooms with private baths are all attractively furnished in a decor benefiting the true spirit of the West. The main lodge includes a dining room overlooking the Hoback River, a spacious livingroom with a beautiful rock fireplace and lounge. Other main features include a sauna, whirlpool, video library, and laundry facility.

Dining: Enjoy three home cooked family style meals each day during your stay. Our motto is "Quality and Quantity" and many of our repeat guests return simply to relax and enjoy the excellent cuisine. Any special diets can be catered to with advance notice.

Entertainment: Twice a week during the summer and once a week in the fall we have cookouts. The cookout is accompanied in song by a local music talent just like in the days of old when voices were lifted in song around the campfire.

The Hideout Lodge & Guest Ranch

Basic Information:

This is not your typical Guest Ranch and a very unique place. The accommodations and level of personal attention are boutique-like. With a culinary schooled chef the food is Western gourmet style. When it comes to riding this is not a nose to tail ranch. There are miles and miles of trails to ride on private, National Forest and BLM land in a variety of scenery. This is not a nose to tail ranch. Experienced riders will find the horses of exceptional quality and beginning riders will find the staff very patient and accommodating. Guests have the opportunity to participate in an authentic working cattle and cowboy experience with cattle work, riding, etc. Many of The Hideout's organized and experienced staff are year-round, which makes them very personable and experienced with the area. Safety sets The Hideout apart and great attention is being paid to the hiring process, quality of horses, maintenance of equipment, communication, safety training, etc. During the cattle drives & round ups, guests are guaranteed plenty of time on horseback as they move over 1,000 head of cattle across the ranch's quarter of a million acres of range. Other activities include trapshooting, natural horsemanship and stockmanship clinics, massage, hot tub, fishing, hiking, canoeing, equine massage initiation, culinary classes, art events, photography clinics, guided visits to Yellowstone National Park, Cody, The Buffalo Bill Museum, Cody Nite Rodeo and much more. Guests of The Hideout with an interest in paleontology, archeology or geology have the unique opportunity to participate in a walking, guided tour of the nearby Red Gulch Dinosaur Track site with a local expert. During the summer months, it is not unusual to meet with international scientists exploring and working on the many geological sites for which Wyoming is world renowned. The Hideout has no dedicated kids program because we believe that family vacations can be a learning experience with children and parents sharing a fun time together. During the summer season families with older kids will find The Hideout not only a fun and exceptional vacation but the entire family will take home many learnings. From September to May the Hideout is mostly adult oriented. Wonderful food, fine horses, great adventures, and genuine western hospitality all await you at The Hideout.

New Haven Working Cattle & Guest Ranch

Basic Information:

Having just 10 or less guests at a time allows us to offer everyone a very individual experience. Guests can become part of the operation and participate in the various ranch activities as much or as little as they like. And to be honest: We enjoy getting to know our guests beyond their names – many of them coming back year after year.Due to our goal to operate our ranch sustainably, we mimic the grazing behavior of large migrating buffalo herds which historically roamed the prairies. This entails frequent cattle moves and thus a lot of hours in the saddle. We work cattle on our ranch as well as on neighbors' properties. There is no head-to-tail riding. When we don't move livestock or check reservoirs and fences, we may be learning how to rope, practice team penning or just go on a trail ride enjoying the scenic views and the abundant wildlife. Guests coming for the first time are always awed by the wide open spaces of the Western wilderness. It's like getting to live in a different world – and maybe even a different time.We run about 40 horses and will match each guest with two horses as working partners for the week. We practice Natural Horsemanship and love to involve our guests in the training, last but not least for their and the horses' safety. Since the work and the terrain can be quite demanding at times, the minimum age for riders is 16. Beginners should be physically fit, not too timid and willing to learn. Riding lessons prior to visiting the ranch are highly recommended. Experienced riders will enjoy the varied challenges of riding on New Haven, be it climbing up a steep canyon wall on their sure footed horse, crossing creek bottoms or going after a stray at a full canter. Not to mention trying their luck at cutting in the arena, roping livestock and going on a night ride.The New Haven Ranch is part of an old ghost town. About 150 years ago the first settlers, called 'homesteaders', came to the area. The small farmers were up against the rough climate, down-and-dirty cattle barons, hostile Indian tribes and the depression of the early 20th century. Many gave up and left. Today the old buildings and machinery found all over the ranch bear witness of times that we only know from novels and movies.

Max.No.Guest(group): 10

Minimum Stay(days): 7

Transportation: from/to Rapid City, South Dakota for $150 per person/round trip

Accommodations: Our lodge has five comfortable rustic bed rooms, each with its own bath room (with hair dryer, soap and shower gel). A furnace and a wood stove provide warmth on cooler days. On hot days, the central air conditioning can be turned on. There is also a cabin available. Bedding and towels are provided. There is the possibility to use a washer and dryer as well. After a long day in the saddle guests can relax in our outdoor hot tub, play a round of pool, sit on the balcony with view of the Missouri Buttes or just take a walk under starry Western skies. Adventurous souls can ride their horses down to the lake and stay in the tipi for a night or two.

Dining: Our open kitchen is attached to the dining and living area. Our home cooked meals are served buffet style and include a full breakfast, a lighter lunch (either eaten at the ranch or on the trail) and a hearty supper including dessert. Snacks and drinks are available for everyone at all times. Please, bring your own sodas and alcoholic beverages. Once a week (if the weather allows) there will be a BBQ at the lake. The owners and staff share most meals with the guests.

Entertainment: Cattle work and moving cattle from pasture to pasture, doctoring cattle, brandings, searching for strays, round-ups, loading and shipping, checking on fences and reservoirs, Natural Horsemanship, roping, team penning, pistol and rifle shooting, trap shooting, swimming/boating/fishing in and on our own lake, hiking and wildlife watching, and if available, visiting rodeos, Western dances and horse sales. Sightseeing and shopping depending on guests' interests. We take all guests to see Devils Tower!
